

Theater Arts 212
Oral Interpretation of Literature
(4 units)

This course fulfills the Literature (C.2) requirement in the Humanities Breadth Area of the CSUSB General Education Program. The University expects students who successfully complete this requirement to be able to:

Goal 1: Construct and articulate clear and informed interpretations of literary texts.

Goal 2: Demonstrate knowledge of the basic typology of the forms and genres of literature and of the standard critical terminologies for analyzing and describing these literary forms and genres

Goal 3: Place the literary “text” in its intellectual, cultural, social, and historical contexts, and take into account the contextual implications of the text

Goal 4: Recognize literature’s capacity to cultivate imagination and growth in self-knowledge, to nurture empathy, and to provide insights into various fields of knowledge and aspects of life
