Student Research and Travel (SRT) ASI and IRP

The Student Research and Travel (SRT) program encourages and supports undergraduate and graduate students with pursuing research and related activities. The SRT program provides up to $1,000 per academic year of funding to support student research and travel related to academic growth and development. Students may use the funding to conduct research for an independent study, academic course, honor's project, or master's thesis project, to present at a conference, or to attend a conference.

Eligibility: CSUSB Undergraduate, post-baccalaureate, graduate and doctoral students enrolled during the quarter in which they are applying for funding. Students must be in good academic standing. Undergraduates must have at least a 2.5 GPA and Graduates must have at least a 3.0 GPA.

Deadlines: October 13, 2016; February 9, 2017; April 27, 2017.

Application Process: To be considered, the Student Research and Travel Application should be submitted to the Office of Graduate Studies CH-123. The application includes:

- Letter of recommendation from a faculty member
- Grant proposal
- Budget
- Supporting documentation

For additional information please contact the Office of Graduate Studies at 909-537-5058.